

RANKING & REFERENCES

Araújo e Policastro Advogados has been highlighted, again, by the renowned publications Chambers Latin America, The Legal 500 Latin America and Best Lawyers Brazil, which have recognized the firm, its partners and teams as reference in several practice areas. Please check below more information about these distinctions in each publication.

Best Lawyers Brazil - Fourth Edition

Published in the United States for over 30 years, Best Lawyers is a reference guide on the most prominent international practitioners.

It is the result of an extensive survey in which millions of lawyers from different countries around the world provide confidential opinions about their colleagues and it presents a list with the best in their practice areas.

The attorneys elected are the following:

- Theodoro Araújo on Corporate / Mergers & Acquisitions (International);
- José Paulo Bueno on Corporate / Mergers & Acquisitions (Corporate Law);
- Camila Araújo on Corporate / Mergers & Acquisitions (Infrastructure) and Natural Resources (Energy, Infrastructure and Regulatory);
- Bruno L. Peixoto on Antitrust and Competition.

The Legal 500 Latin America 2013

This publication, one of the most respected in the legal segment in the world, highlights Araújo e Policastro Advogados as one of the leading law firms in Latin America.

The practice areas and professionals are the following:

- Corporate / Mergers & Acquisitions: Theodoro Araújo, José Paulo Bueno e Camila Araújo;
- Tax: Sylvio Paes de Barros;
- Energy and Natural Resources (Electric Power and Oil & Gas): Camila Araújo;
